STEAMER FOUNDERS; 22 LOST

Struck by British Tramp,
of Chesapeake

WAS NOT GIVEN AID

Captain and Wife Separated
in Death—Seamen Tell
Tales of Horrible Catastrophe.

Newport News, Va., Jan. 4.—The steamer Julia Luchenbach from Port Tampa to Baltimore, was sunk off Tangier gas buoy in Chesapeake Bay shortly before 7 o'clock yesterday morning, having been in collision with the British steamer Indrakula. Twenty-two lives were lost, including Captain Gilbert and his wife.

Eight men, including the second mate, were taken from the rigging of the sunken ship, where they had been lashed for six hours in the gale which was sweeping the bay. Others dropped off, one by one, numbed by the cold, and drowned.

The British steamer Indrakula which collided with the Julia Luchenbach, is reported to be beached about three miles from the scene of the collision, with a twisted bow. What other damage, if any, was sustained, is not known.

The men brought here say that the Indrakula backed off immediately after the accident, going to the beach and making no effort to aid the Luchenbach's survivors. The Danish steamer Pennsylvania rescued the survivors.

According to those rescued, Captain Gilbert and the first and second officers were standing on the bridge when the collision occurred. There was no opportunity to give the alarm to those below. Captain Gilbert made a desperate effort to rescue his wife and when last seen was swimming aft of the sinking ship.

The Luchenbach now lies in about 52 feet of water. One seaman hurried up the Luchenbach's funnel stays as she went down. Finally he reached the rim of the stack and was safe for a moment. Then, as the ship lurched, her funnel broke loose and he was lost.

MR. ASHBROOK GETS TWO MORE PENSIONS LICKING CO. WIDOWS

Washington, Jan. 4.—Congressman Wm. A. Ashbrook has just secured the passage by the House of Representatives of two special pension bills for two deserving widows of Licking county, Ohio. Mrs. Mary P. King of Utica, increasing her pension from $12 to $24 a month, and Mrs. Leah A. Jackson, 18 Western avenue, Newark $12 a month.

Mrs. King is an invalid, is totally disabled and is bedfast. Mrs. Jackson was married to her soldier husband in 1892, a year and a half subsequent to the passage of the act of June, 1890 which barred all widows from securing a pension who became wives of soldiers after the passage of said law. However, owing to the seeming injustice done Mrs. Jackson and the equity in her case, Mr. Ashbrook succeeded in getting her name upon the pension rolls.

MRS. WILSON WILL BAR THE TURKEY TROT

Trenton, N. J., Jan. 4.—"Turkey trotting" will be barred at the White House. The wife of President-elect Wilson doesn't approve of it.

The defendants charge that two members of the grand jury, who had been sworn in to fill vacancies, were not legal grand jurors.

NELSON BEATEN BY RUSSELL AT NEW ORLEANS

New Orleans, Jan. 4.—Frankie Russell of this city was awarded a decision over "Battling" Nelson after a 10-round fight here last night. Nelson was badly beaten.

LOCATION HERE OF COURT OF APPEALS IS OF VITAL IMPORTANCE TO NEWARK

The question as to whether or not the Board of County Commissioners will provide adequate accommodations for the Circuit Court of Appeals and by so doing secure for Newark and Licking County the sessions of the court is being given considerable discussion today among the business and professional men of the city.

The matter was brought to an issue on Thursday when City Solicitor Roderic Jones, Charles L. Flory and S. F. McDonald, as a committee from the Licking County Bar Association, waited on the commissioners in reference to the proposition.

Today it was found that attorneys differ as to the interpretation of the provisions of the court, some saying that the commissioners must provide accommodations if the court expresses an intention of holding its sessions here and others maintaining that it is a matter of discretion with the commissioners.

The question was put to a prominent attorney by the Advocate this morning and the following answer elicited:

"I haven't looked the matter up as yet, but the question as to whether or not the court can command the commissioners to provide a meeting place is of minor importance. There are fifteen counties in the Judicial district; the court will locate at four points. It has offered to make the points Newark, Canton, Mansfield and Zanesville. This means that the litigants in appeal and error cases arising in the common pleas courts in the other eleven counties must bring their cases to these four cities, as the court will be in session in those places only. The court has offered to come to Newark, but it should be remembered that it is not forced to come here and that if this county is not disposed to provide accommodations there are eleven other counties in the district that may be slightly more far-sighted.

"If the word goes out to the court that Licking county is not disposed to provide accommodations it will be an easy matter for it to locate in one of the other counties, all of which would be glad to secure it, both for convenience and for the sake of the business that it will inevitably create.

"The question is simply this: Shall Licking county spend $600 or $700 and bring the people, the business and money of litigants from other counties here, or shall it let the court locate in some other county and eventually spend many times that sum in taking Licking county cases to the sessions of the court at the point at which it will locate."

"The whole affair is of interest to others than members of the bar who are urging it—it is of more vital interest to the business men of the city and to the people of the county."

This afternoon County Commissioners Brownfield and Taveuer, accompanied by Prosecuting Attorney Phil B. Smythe, examined the two rooms in which it is proposed that the court be located.

The commissioners made no statement of their attitude in the whole matter of bringing the court here, except to say that nothing definite will be done until the meeting of the commissioners on Wednesday of next week.

PLUNGED TO ICY DEATH IN MAUMEE

"NITRO" AND REVOLVERS IN PRISON FIGHT

Cedar Rapids, Ia., Jan. 4.—With a bottle of nitroglycerine in his hand, Harvey Lee, charged with burglary, held a squad of officers at bay in the county jail at Marion, six miles from here, for nearly an hour early today.

In the fight which followed, Officer Charles Gillin of this city, fell dead with a bullet wound through his breast and Detective John Cook was shot through the hand.

The battle followed a desperate attempt on the part of Lee to break jail. Having been provided with nitroglycerine by some visitors, he blew off the lock of his cell and was attempting to blow out the bars of a window when the officers appeared.

Lee claimed he had no pistol and the officers admitted he had no weapon on him. Who fired the shots has not been learned.

It is conceded that Representative C. A. Reid of Fayette county, who would have been elected speaker if the Republicans were in control, will be named for minority leader in the lower branch. Senator C. J. Howard of Belmont county, will be selected as caucus nominee for president pro tem of the Senate.

SHOOT TO KILL THE BANDITS

Is Order Issued Against the Bold Auto Thieves of Chicago

DASH THROUGH STREETS

In Big Machine After Raiding Store of Gems—Revolver Battle With the Police.

Chicago, Jan. 4.—Four auto bandits who looted a North Clark street jewelry store of $3600 in gems sped through the crowded loop district, fought two revolver battles with the police, wounding one officer, have aroused the police department today and every officer in the city is working in an effort to capture the outlaws.

The last appearance of the bandits was the boldest of any of the depredations they have committed.

Just as the homebound crowds last night filled the downtown streets, the bandits made the raid a few blocks north of the loop district. Then they whirled away in their auto, exchanging shots with officers who pursued them, eluded an automobile commandeered by the police, turned toward the downtown section, violated all speed ordinances and dashed through the crowded streets at breakneck speed.

At Wabash avenue and Monroe street, Traffic Officer Fred Sticken halted the machine because it carried no tail lights. He mounted the running board and directed the chauffeur to drive to the police station. The chauffeur apparently complied.

At Monroe street and Fifth avenue one of the men in the machine slugged Sticken with a blackjack and another kicked him in the street. Another shot him through the leg. The policeman drew his own revolver and a number of shots were exchanged. Hundreds of people saw the encounter.

The men fled to South Water street and Fifth avenue and abandoned the car.

Chief McWeeny today issued strict orders to his men to keep a lookout for the marauders. "Shoot to kill" were his instructions should the men resist arrest.

POWERS WILL PRACTICALLY FORCE PEACE

London, Jan. 4.—The Balkan peace conference which was to have met again today, was postponed until Monday at the request of the Turks, who are awaiting final instructions from the Ottoman government at Constantinople. There is no evidence today of a weakening of the deadlock in the conference over the question of the future of Adrianople.

Under the pressure of Europe, the Turkish government, it is thought, will be able to meet the public hostility in Turkey to the giving up of the fortress of Adrianople, with the plea that it had been forced to yield by the powers. In that event Turkey will get a larger slice of the province of Thrace than the Balkan allies were first disposed to give her.

TURKEY OBSTREPEROUS Constantinople, Jan. 4.—The Turkish Cabinet of Ministers this afternoon telegraphed fresh instructions to Reschad Pasha, the head of the Turkish delegation of the London peace conference. The Ottoman plenipotentiary is ordered, to reject the ultimatum of the Balkan allies.

80-MILE BREEZE STIRS GAY GOTHAM. MERCURY DROPPING

New York, Jan. 4.—At least three deaths and approximately $200,000 property damage resulted from last night's scud gale which swept New York and vicinity. This morning at 9 o'clock the wind had dropped to six miles an hour, but the mercury had crawled down to 32 and pedestrians suffered keenly.

TREASURER OF MORGAN COUNTY LANDS IN JAIL

McConnelsville, Jan. 4.—J. W. Taylor, treasurer of Morgan county, whose supposed disappearance caused State Auditor Fullington to send State Examiner Sage here to investigate his books, spent last night in jail here. Before his apprehension, notices were sent to police in surrounding cities to hold him, if found, on a charge of embezzlement.

No definite information as to the alleged shortage is forthcoming. Taylor's friends insist that his accounts will be found to be correct, and say that the most serious charge which can be brought against him is inattention to duty. It is said that Taylor as been drinking heavily since his defeat for re-election last November. The fact that the state examiner and others who probably have knowledge of the situation declined to be interviewed, even refusing to answer telephone calls, has given rise to rumors of a bad situation in the treasurer's office.

Taylor attempted to leave McConnelsville Thursday night, it is said, but was unable to rent an automobile. An officer was given a warrant yesterday and told to serve it on Mr. Taylor if he tried to leave town by train, but Taylor did not make an attempt of this kind. He has been inordinately fond of motoring, and almost every night last summer hired machines and took friends on rides to Zanesville, Newark and other cities. He is 35 years old and has a wife and one son.

GOVERNMENT WILL DEFEND ITS ACTIONS

Indianapolis, Ind., Jan. 4.—Government officials conferred today concerning the expected results of the action in Chicago of the United States circuit court of appeals in granting rights to bonds to 32 of the labor officials now confined in the federal prison at Leavenworth, Kan., for complicity in the dynamite plots.

It was stated that Judge Anderson may require bonds from residents of the district of Indiana, and insist that where real estate is the surety the value of the property in each case shall be twice as high as the bonds.

William M. Harding of the attorneys for the men, returned from Chicago today to begin at once before Judge Anderson action looking toward the release of the prisoners.

WATCH FOR FINANCIER HAS ENDED

Rockefeller Agrees to Accept Service of the
"Money Trust"
Probers

WHEREABOUTS UNKNOWN

Oil Magnate's Counsel Says
Client's Health is Precarious—Jan. 31 Date Set for the Hearing.

New York, Jan. 4.—William Rockefeller has agreed, through his counsel, John A. Garver, to accept service of a subpoena to appear before the Pujos committee of the house of representatives at Washington, investigating the "Money Trust" according to announcement made at the offices of Samuel Untermyer, counsel for the committee.

Mr. Untermyer in behalf of the committee, it was stated, has, by the direction of Chairman Pujos, accepted this offer.

No intimation of the whereabouts of Mr. Rockefeller was contained in the statement.

As a result of the agreement, the sergeant-at-arms of the house has been instructed to discontinue his efforts to effect service on Mr. Rockefeller.

While accepting service, the statement avers, Mr. Garver advised Mr. Untermyer that Rockefeller's condition of health is very precarious and that it will be impossible for him to appear as a witness at Washington or ever to submit to an examination at his home.

Mr. Rockefeller has been informed that having now submitted to the jurisdiction of the committee, he must present his excuses to the committee in due form for such action as it may deem proper. If it is established to the satisfaction of the committee that it will be impossible to obtain the testimony of Mr. Rockefeller without imperiling his life the statement says, the committee, would, of course, not feel justified in taking any such extreme action. It may, however, conclude to secure an independent opinion.

Mr. Garver, at his home last evening confirmed the announcement that he had accepted service in behalf of Mr. Rockefeller. In answer to questions, he said this, in effect, was the same as though Mr. Rockefeller had been personally served. He did not care to state his wife, where Mr. Rockefeller was at present.

Sergeant-at-arms Riddell of the house of representatives made a formal demand at the house of William Rockefeller last evening for a definite answer as to whether Mr. Rockefeller was there.

Accompanied by two deputies, the sergeant-at-arms rode up to the house in a taxicab and rang the front door bell several times. Getting no answer, he rang the bell at the side door. A maid opened the door, and Mr. Riddell said:

"I want to see Mr. William Rockefeller."

"Mr. Rockefeller is not here," the maid replied.

"In the name of the house of representatives of the United States," said Mr. Riddell.

"I am sorry, but he is not here," answered the maid.

The sergeant-at-arms then asked to see the housekeeper, but was told that she could not be found.

The watches thrown around Mr. Rockefeller's Fifth Avenue mansion; his home in Tarrytown, and the home of relatives in Greenwich, Conn., were withdrawn last night, ending the search of process-servers begun last night.

Charles F. Riddell, sergeant-at-arms of the house of representatives, communicated with members of the Pujos committee in Washington upon being informed that Mr. Garver had accepted service and was authorized to discontinue the search.

LEAVES FOR CUBA
Jacksonville, Fla., Jan. 4.—Wm. Rockefeller, wanted as a witness before the Pujos money trust investigating committee is believed to have left here last night for Cuba. There were several members of the party.

CONDITION IS SERIOUS.
New York, Jan. 4.—Although William Rockefeller, through his counsel, has accepted service of the subpoena requiring him to testify before the Pujos committee, his whereabouts today remained as much a matter of speculation as it has been at any time during the 45 days employes of the house of representatives have been trying to reach him. His physician, Dr. Walter F. Chappel, asserts that the strain of testifying would result seriously because of Mr. Rockefeller's condition.

ROCKEFELLER FINALLY CONCLUDES TO BE A
LAW ABIDING CITIZEN

William Rockefeller is one of the richest men in the world. Every dollar of his vast estate is held under the protection of laws enacted by his fellow-citizens. Yet it pleases him to defy these laws when they interfere with his personal comfort, and to affront his countrymen when their representatives attempt to summon him to Washington as a witness.

Mr. Rockefeller has several homes and many servants and retainers. When he barricades himself in one of his castles to escape process servers he proclaims his contempt for the people and their government and has invited upon himself and his kind a resentment which could not fail to appear.

After evading the officers of the law since last June and placing himself in contempt of the people as well as the government, Mr. Rockefeller has finally yielded to the inevitable and consented to accept a subpoena from Congress and appear as a witness. He finally realized after months of evasion, that he had better be a law abiding citizen.

OUR COUNTRY AGAIN UNITED AND HAPPY.

Governor Wilson's hope that he may contribute somewhat toward the obliteration of all traces of bitterness between North and South will undoubtedly be realized. Of course time has effected most of the work. It is now half a century since the two sections were at war with each other, and most of the participants have gone to the long home where there are no more wars or rumors of wars. The few survivors have on several occasions shown themselves capable of heartily shaking hands, and of doing much more magnanimous things than that. Many a battle flag captured on one side and long cherished as a priceless token of victory has been returned by the brave men who took it to the equally brave men who lost it. But a native of the South, the governor of a Northern state, elected President by an unprecedented majority in the electoral college, should be able to remove what little remains of the feelings which fifty years ago were of an intensity that no person who was not living at that time can realize.

No Delay in Filling Promises.

When Gov. Wilson and Congressman Underwood agree that the extra session should begin as soon after March 4 as possible, the matter may be regarded as settled. With the President-elect and the leader of the Democratic party in the House of Representatives in accord on this subject, we have the highest assurance that there will be no unnecessary delay in giving effect to the people's will.

Promptness in this respect is desirable for many reasons, but chiefly so because in years past when tariff laws were to be enacted in behalf of favored interests no time was lost in putting them through. The Dingley 1897 and Payne-Aldrich (1909) laws were passed at extra sessions called in March and became operative in August.

If the new Congress should assemble ten days after the inauguration a substantial measure of tax reduction ought easily to be in force by July 1. It is no new question that is to be considered. Bills that have had the approval of Congress and people more than once are already in hand.

We are not making much progress in the way of disarming dangerous persons by asserting the sanctity of human life. The number of homicides reported in the newspapers last year was 9,152, a considerable increase over the year before and a small increase over 1910. Just about half of the killings occurred in quarrels. In the conflict with highwaymen a balance of trade is largely against law-abiding citizens. Seventy highwaymen were killed, and the highwaymen killed 367 persons.

The plan of the United States Steel Corporation to establish a large plant in Canada marks an interesting departure from the previous policy of that company. Canada has a rapidly growing market, but it has erected tariff barriers so high that the Steel Trust has found it difficult to get over them. So it solves the difficulty by going to Canada, as many other American manufacturers have done, and starting mills of its own there. Most of its ore and coal must come from the United States, and the Canadians are not likely to look upon the enterprise with enthusiasm.

The Chase of Rockefeller
(New York World.)

If the Amalgamated Union of Multimillionaires, Journeymen Trust Builders and Friendly Sons of High Finance has any influence with Brother William Rockefeller it should exert it at once. He is making a show of himself. He has no regard for the good of the order. He is violating the rule which says that every member shall pretend to respect the people and obey the law.

Here is the Congress of the United States with a summons for Mr. Rockefeller which it cannot serve because he hides. There is talk of search warrants, battering rams and patrol wagons. The first thing we know some zealous District Attorney will proceed against the whole organization for conspiracy or contempt, and judges will be clapping injunctions upon every phreaser in sight.

This union has reached its present prosperity largely as a result of its perfectly safe and sane support of established institutions and vested rights. Yet Brother Rockefeller defies one of the most ancient of legal processes and causes suspicion to attach to his associates.

While the people of the United States have an interest in Mr. Rockefeller's apprehension, we think his comrades are much more profoundly involved. What a pretty spectacle it would be if in pious recognition of popular sovereignty they were to surrender him to an outraged law.

A DEMOCRATIC ACQUISITION.

The Twin City Independent, published at Uricksville, defines its political position for the future in the following paragraph:

"Believing that the once great Republican party has outlived its usefulness and that it now represents the classes and not the masses, the Independent will in the future contribute its mite toward the success of the Democratic party and the principles advocated by it."

Mr. Thompson, the editor, is a veteran of the civil war and a life-long Republican. He has been a uniform and staunch friend of Congressman Ashbrook. The stand he has taken means an important acquisition to the Democracy of Old Tuscawawas, which has again become a Democratic stronghold.

And now Senator Bailey of Texas, has "sung his swan song." It is hoped he will not change his decision again and withdraw his resignation.

ANNUAL MEETING OF DEMOCRATIC CLUB

The annual meeting of the Licking County Democratic club was held in the club rooms in South Third street, Friday night. The meeting was called for the purpose of holding the annual election of officers and the balloting resulted in the re-election of the present officers.

REPORT OF THE CIVIL SERVICE COMMISSION

Election of officers for the coming year was the special order of business at the meeting of the Civil Service Commission, held Saturday afternoon, and resulted in the selection of I. M. Phillips to the office of president and Attorney Ray Martin as secretary. Other members of the commission for 1919 are Messrs. E. Cary Norris and Walter S. Symons.

The commission will insist that the statutes concerning civil service appointments be rigidly adhered to hereafter, and the report of the commission, signed for presentation to the city council, calls particular attention to the necessity of proper maintenance of records.

The report states "We believe in a true application of the merit system and have applied the civil service laws and rules solely for the betterment of the service and free from influences of any character, and in a continuation of that policy we ask the co-operation of all city departments." A brief summary of examinations during the year shows the following:

BUSINESS OF
IS INCREASING

Newark people are taking kindly to the new parcels post proposition. This is indicated by the large number of packages handled in the local postoffice. Friday more than 200 parcels were dispatched to various points. The number received is far less than this sum, but this business is increasing each day.

No freak packages have been handled in the local office. As far as is known, no eggs, live chickens or other unusual mail matter have been dispatched.

There has been but little difficulty so far in getting the people to understand the rules governing the use of this branch of the postal service. One point which is not fully understood seems to be that the old merchandise rate has been abolished entirely. All matter formerly in this class is now handled by parcels post and requires parcels post stamps.

All packages up to four ounces are forwarded on the flat rate of one cent per ounce, but such packages must bear the parcels post stamps. Ordinary postage will not do.

The amount of business in this branch of the postal service has not required any additional help but if the volume continues to grow larger in the same proportion that it has in the past few days, more help will be required before spring opens up.

The extent of the use to which the parcels post is put is indicated by packages forwarded from the larger centers. In Columbus yesterday shoe dealers forwarded many pairs of shoes in individual boxes claiming that the parcels post rate was far below that of the express companies. A child's chair, unwrapped, bearing merely a tag with the address of the sender and the recipient was all that adorned the chair. Country produce was enclosed in many of the packages.

Mr. Justice of the Columbus postoffice was in Newark yesterday and told local postal employees that the Columbus office was swamped with the parcels post business.

THE BUSY WOMEN

The women keep after their rights; their husbands, unfortunate wights, are scrubbing the floors and washing the doors, and herding the babies at nights. The women still go to the club; their husbands eat stale grub, and sweeping the stairs and dusting the chairs, and doing their stunt at the tub. On juries the women now sit, while lawyers throw fit after fit; their husbands may take up the burden and bake, and darn the old stockings, and knit. The women are running for snaps, like other political chaps; their husbands have knives for the campaigning wives, which they'll use at elections—perhaps. The dames are the equals of men; they've said it again and again; they've laid down the law with the hoof and the jaw, the dornick and bludzeon and pen. Professions the women invade; you run against matron or maid in the office and store, in the shop evermore, assertive, serene, unafraid. But you don't see the girls laying brick, or s-s-s-eating around with a pick; and they don't seem to itch for a job in the ditch, along with Tom, Harry and Dick. Oh, the men will remain up on guard where the work is both dirty and hard, while the dizzy old dames play the masculine games and talk of their rights by the yard.

Herbert Bigelow, Political Parson, Celebrates His 43d Birthday.

To disciples of Henry George the world over the name of Herbert Seely Bigelow is known and honored, and many and sincere will be the congratulatory messages that will pour in on Cincinnati's "political parson" today, his forty-third birthday. Although his birth is in Cincinnati, the influence of Bigelow has been powerful throughout America, and has even been felt in Europe. The adoption of the initiative and referendum and other radical measures, incorporated in the new constitution, by the people of Ohio, was probably due in large part to the propaganda carried on for years by the clerical preacher of democracy.

Herbert Seely, the original name of the famous clergyman, was born in Elkhart, Ind., on January 4, 1876. His father was extremely poor, and his mother died when he was an infant. At the tender age of nine Herbert knew the paternal home, working for a time as a bootblack, and later as a farm hand in Michigan. Rota! life! called on him, and he tramped through the southern states, working at odd jobs. He was employed in a Florida hotel when he attracted the attention of Alphonse Bigelow and his wife, wealthy people from Cleveland. They adopted the wandering lad and educated him at a college and Western Reserve university. He at first decided on a journalistic career, and for a year was a reporter on the Cleveland Plain Dealer. Then he determined to become a clergyman, took a course at Lane theological Seminary, and in 1896 was ordained as a Congregational minister. He was called to the Vine Street Congregational church in Cincinnati, where his eloquence soon made him popular. In a few years he became an earnest convert to the social tax theory, and to the initiative and referendum, and the only way of securing its adoption. The anti-imperialist movement which

Five hundred and ten boys, average age 16 years, averaged 85 bushels of corn per acre in the corn growing contest. The average for men in Ohio is 35 bushels. Ninety-three boys raised over 100 bushels per acre. Moral—be a boy.

Who has the best cow in the neighborhood is now a leading question at the farmer institutes. Each meeting is furnished with a Babcock milk tester which discovers the boarder cow and the profitable animal. Many farmers are surprised at results and sometimes ashamed of them.

Each state instructor at farmer institutes has a supply of litmus paper, with which samples of soil can be tested for alkali or acid. Many farmers are finding out why they cannot grow clover, and by so doing make good wages attending the institutes.

From reports received, one farmer in six would rather go to a circus or Nickelodeum, than attend a farmer meeting.

Some farmers would not let their own son take the time to take the trip to Washington, even when the public spirited business man in town wanted to pay the boy's way. The father could not spare the boy in winter time from hard work. It is not strange that boys leave the farm.

At many institutes there will be a new and latest improved machine to test corn for the per cent of moisture it has in it. Time required about 25 minutes. The experiment is interesting and instructive. Few farmers know how to grade corn. In the near future corn will be sold according to its moisture test. Some farmers are getting ready for it. Many independent institutes will be held.

Keeping the Body in Repair
Nature intended that the body should do its own repairing—and it would do so were it not for the fact that most of us live other than a natural life.
Nature didn't intend that we should wear corsets, tight collars or shoes, nor live in badly ventilated and draughty houses, nor eat and drink some of the things that we do, nor ride in street cars when we should walk.
The consequence is that the body when it gets out of order must look for outside help to make the necessary repairs.

INSOMNIA AND NERVOUSNESS

No wonder the people of Newark are flocking to the drug store of T. J. Evans when they are selling a purely vegetable remedy on the money-back plan for the following ailments: Insomnia, brain fog, nervousness, restlessness, nightmare, lack of vitality, energy and confidence. Morse's Glyceroide isn't a patent medicine. Always bear that fact in mind. It is the prescription of a famous Toronto physician and has been used in hospitals and by physicians in private practice throughout the English speaking world for 22 years.

The formula is printed on the label so that you can see for yourself that it does not contain a particle of morphine, bromides nor any coal-tar product.

If you suffer from sleeplessness, that tired out feeling, dependency or inability to perform your daily duties, get a bottle of Morse's Glyceroide today. The healthful happiness that will come to you after a few days' treatment will astonish your friends as well as yourself.

Morse's Glyceroide will restore to perfect health any person suffering from any nervous afflictions. Price 50 cents a bottle, and money back if not satisfied, mind you, and without any red tape.

UNCEASING MISERY.
Some Newark Kidney Sufferers Get Little Rest or Comfort.

There is little sleep, little rest, little peace for many a sufferer from kidney trouble. Life is one continuous round of pain. You can't rest at night when there's kidney backache. Neglect these ailments and serious troubles may follow. Begin using Doan's Kidney Pills at the first sign of trouble. Thousands have testified to their merit.

Proof in Newark testimony:
Mrs. A. J. Howe, 96 N. Williams St., Newark, Ohio, says: "I had dizzy and nervous spells. My head ached and I did not sleep well. My kidneys were out of order and I had backaches. When I saw Doan's Kidney Pills advertised, I got a supply at A. F. Crayton & Co.'s Drug Store. They soon made me strong and well."

GOOD JOKE SPOILED; PERPETRATOR WAS TOO OVER-ANXIOUS

A very catchy little jest has been passed around by local business men during the past few days and has succeeded in landing a number of anxious callers. The spirit of Christmas is partially responsible for the jest. Visitors at certain places of business in the city are asked if they would not like a solvent clear lighter. Of course, the reply is always in the affirmative, and they are handed a plain, common, ordinary phosphorus-tipped parlor match. It's a perfectly good clear lighter, the victim is assured—and proceeds to pass the joke on to someone else.

It remained for Tommy Evans, the genial draught of East Park Place, to put the laughing touch on the joke. He evidently had been saving it for several hours and was waiting for the Advocate reporter's call when he entered the drug store this morning.

"No news this morning," he called, as the reporter entered the store. "Business of great disappointment followed."

"By the way," added the druggist, as he tried to conceal his risibilities. "Have you received one of our souvenir MATCH LIGHTERS yet?"

"Can you beat it?"

When some people call they leave cards. Others leave bills.

BROKE INTO BARN
AND STOLE PELTS
OF YOUNG TRAPPER

Harry Whitaker, a young trapper of West Newark, is having his troubles with his pelts this season. He had a large number of extra fine furs hidden in the Moser barn at Williams and West Main streets and some time during the past few days burglars entered the place and stole all the furs in sight. Whitaker placed his loss at about $50, the amount he would have received for the pelts. The matter was reported to the police department and Friday afternoon officers searched the premises of a suspect in West Newark but did not succeed in locating any of the property. The officers have no other clue as to the identity of the robbers. Some of the pelts Whitaker trapped and others he bought from friends.

CONDUCTOR WAS KEPT ON JUMP
DURING STORM

Conductor L. V. Billman of the North Fourth street car line was the busiest little street car operative in the city Saturday morning. In fact, he was the whole works on the division that kept the residence district in the north of the city.
Following the hard luck of yesterday, when cars on the Fourth street line were derailed on three different occasions, there was a shortage of crews and for several hours Conductor Billman operated both cars on the line. He would work from the square to Hudson avenue and at this point unload and collect the fare from the passengers on the city-bound car. Passengers going north were mystified for a time to see the conductor desert the car at Hudson avenue and nonchalantly climb on board the car going in the opposite direction.

NEWARK BOYS
DRAW $10 FINE
AT COSHOCTON

Four Newark boys, Arthur Sebring, Clyde Lugenbeal, Charles Oatman, and Sidney Allen, were arrested on Pennsylvania passenger train No. 3, Thursday afternoon, by Railroad Detective Doney on a charge of throwing stones from a freight train into the windows of telegraph stations between Newark and Coshocton. It is charged that the boys boarded a freight in this city and rode as far as Coshocton where they took the passenger train back to Newark, riding the blind baggage. Detective Doney had been notified of the actions of the quartet and figured that they would ride No. 3 back home. He was in the baggage car which they boarded and after the train was in motion, he opened the end door and dragged them inside. A fifth member of the party escaped. They were returned to Coshocton on a later train.

Mrs. Oatman, mother of Charles Oatman, sent $10.00 to Chief of Police Blizard last night and asked him to forward the amount to Squire Winner of Coshocton to pay her son's fine. Each of the lads was fined $10. The extra 70 cents was furnished by the mother to pay her son's fare to Newark.

WORRIED OVER
SHORTAGE; HANGS
SELF IN BARN

Delaware, O., Jan. 4.—Charles Davis, aged 48, clerk of Radnor township, just north of Delaware, committed suicide this morning by hanging himself in his barn. The body was found by his wife about 8:30.
About six weeks ago there was considerable comment about a shortage in Davis' accounts, amounting to about $2000. It was alleged that he had appropriated cemetery funds for his own use. Davis is said to have given mortgages to cover amount of his alleged shortage, and the affair was dropped.
It now seems, however, that the affair was not such a closed incident as it appeared, and it is believed that worry over the whole matter led Davis to end his life today.
Besides his wife, a daughter 21 years of age survives.

Y. M. C. A. NOTES

The open house on New Year's day was a success, 599 people visited the building and enjoyed the music, the gymnasium drills and the display of calendars. It was a busy day for the employed force but they thoroughly enjoyed meeting the people and showing them through the building.

Messrs. Norton, Speckman, Gubse, Irwin, Lash and Kruger, members of the German Wallace Basket Ball team, who played the Newark Independents Thursday and Friday nights, spent most of their time in the building.

F. C. Dusenden and E. W. Collins, both employed by the Newark Natural Gas and Fuel Co., are occupying room No. 4 in the building.
Word came from Harry D. Tinnen that he is safely located in Nelsonville and is enjoying his new work.

The regular monthly meeting of the board of directors will be held in the building next Thursday night at 7:00 o'clock.

H. J. Dickerson of the High School has been spending some of his Christmas vacation with his sister in Zanesville.

W. W. Broadbent has been spending several days at his home in Scranton, Pa.

New Year's day was spent in an all-day demonstration, consisting of Junior class in the morning, Students class in the afternoon, followed by a swimming exhibition and a basketball game. The swimmers represented the different classes. Swisher, Marshall of the Cadets, Clifford Grimm the Juniors, Frank Spencer the Students and Archie Goodwin the Intermediates. This was followed by Mr. Robert's demonstration of the different strokes and dives, this in turn was followed by the basketball game between the Newark Y. M. C. A. students and the Zanesville Midgets which ended with a victory by the Newark students, the score being 26 to 18.

The Business Men played volleyball ball from 5 to 7 o'clock which gave the people who never saw the game a good chance to become acquainted with it. In the evening a mixed class of Intermediates and Seniors gave a fine exhibition in the gymnasium work, consisting of club swinging, apparatus work and games. The total attendance in classes for the day was 88.
